First granted in 1675, this National Historic Landmark connects to the very fabric of our nation's complex history focusing on the contributions of the Middleton family as well as the enslaved Africans and African Americans who lived and worked here. The stories are a microcosm of United States history.

Boone Hall Plantation is a historic district located in Mount Pleasant, Charleston County, South Carolina, United States and listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The plantation is one of America's oldest plantations still in operation.

THE CHARLESTON TEA GARDEN Welcome to the Charleston Tea Garden®! For tea lovers, we promise a once in a lifetime experience. We're the only tea garden in North America where you can see hundreds of thousands of tea bushes stretching out acre after acre for almost as far as the eye can see. There is no admission charge. The Bigelow family, William Barclay Hall and the staff of the garden stand ready to bring you the tea experience of your life. We're located on picturesque Wadmalaw Island in the heart of the low country just a few miles south of the historic city of Charleston. In addition to our many acres of tea plants, we offer a very educational tour of our tea factory. You get to walk the entire length of our tea production building where you can see all the equipment it takes to make tea. Large TV screens along the glassed in gallery describe the entire process. As mentioned, we also offer a 45 minute trolley ride, which makes a stop at our state of the art greenhouse. Last but not least is our gift shop, stocked with more tea related items than you can possibly imagine. Last year some seventy five thousand people from all over the world came to visit us. We'd love to have you be one of them this coming year.
